E. F. Smith may not be running competition to the many jitney drivers around the city, but we did see him come down through the Plaza the other day pulling a buggy with a passenger in it. The passenger got out at the city hall corner, but must have paid in advance as we did not see any money change hands.

Dunsmuir News: Frank Dougherty, the genial young clerk temporarily employed in the Walker & Burgess store during the absence of Fred Walker, returned Monday morning to his Ashland home. He is a clean-cut young man, of pleasing personality, and one whom it is a pleasure to meet. We hope at no distant date he will again be with us.

Automobile enthusiasts will remember the attempt made by the demonstrator of a friction drive car to climb the Hotel Oregon steps a couple of years ago. A driver of a Ford went the friction driver one better last Wednesday and started up the Commercial Club stairway from the Plaza. Needless to say the effort was totally involuntary on the part of the driver. No damage was done.

H. S. Stine was among the Medford church workers who attended the Sunday school convention in this city last week.

George Larder, a Southern Pacific employe, leaves this evening for eastern Oregon and Washington points, on a vacation.

George Mathes brought in three nice bucks Sunday. The recent rain has brought gladness to the hearts of the deer hunters.

The petit jury of the circuit court was called at 10 o'clock this morning at Medford. There are only four cases on the docket.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simpson and Miss Ethel Simpson of Hebron, Ind., are visiting their uncle, J. K. McCain, on Morton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Badger left Sunday for San Francisco and the exposition. Mr. Badger intends to locate in the vicinity of the California metropolis.

John Connor of Oakland and Mr. Arlington of the same city left Friday afternoon in the former's automobile for their California home. Mr. Connor was proprietor of the Hotel Oregon a number of years ago.

Mrs. Dale Guiley of Sunnyside, Wash., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper, in Ashland.

Jack Peebler and family, who until recently resided on a ranch on Green Springs mountain, have moved to Central Point.

Mrs. Gene Kidder, who has been visiting Mrs. Ballinger at her home on Allison street, left Saturday for Newcastle, Cal.

Harry Van Dyke left Sunday for Hilt, Cal., where he has accepted the position of agent for the Southern Pacific Company.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Butler left Sunday on a two weeks' trip through California, during which they will visit the exposition.

Misses Gertrude and Helene Biede have returned from a two weeks' stay at the San Francisco exposition, and report a delightful time.

O. Winter has been appointed trustee of the Biegel hardware stock. Mr. Biegel recently filed bankruptcy. Mr. Winter is overseeing an invoice of the stock.

Mrs. L. B. Applegate of Klamath county is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Dan Walker and Mrs. Henry Applegate, and other relatives residing in Ashland and vicinity.

A gang of itinerant Holy Rollers held forth in front of Curt's restaurant at the depot Sunday afternoon, to the edification of a good sized crowd which gathered.

Horace Reno, one of Ashland's most promising young musicians and for several months past a member of the Lyric orchestra, left Friday for San Francisco, where he will continue the study of the cello under one of the best teachers in the United States. He expects to be gone for several weeks.

Miss Laura Fouts of Medford was among the out of town Sunday school workers who attended the convention last week.

Shirley Keene, dancing. Memorial hall. Phone 702-R. 43-44

Miss Meta Heming and Miss Anna Sundolf of Chicago are visiting at the home of the former's uncle, H. F. Pohland, in Ashland. They came west by the Canadian Pacific railway and after a visit in Ashland will go to the San Francisco exposition and home by the southern route.

The entrance to the New Lithia park has been greatly improved by the erection of a decent looking fence around the property to the right of the entrance of the drive. The fence posts are painted green and the surroundings of the entrance are much improved in looks as a result.

Gray squirrel hunters are having much better success than the quail hunters of late. The squirrels, which have been protected for a number of years, are numerous in several sections near Ashland. A shotgun makes short work of killing a squirrel, however, and no doubt the silver grays will be as scarce as ever by the end of the season.

Among the members of the Medford W. C. T. U. who met the White Ribbon special in Ashland last week were Mrs. T. A. Howell, Mrs. J. C. Wood, Mrs. L. B. Goldove, Mrs. Riley D. Henson, Mrs. W. J.
